THE TOURIST ATTRACTIONS

TOURISM IN WALLONIA LET THE SUN SHINE!

In Wallonia, the term “Tourist Attraction” is a protected designation, awarded by the Commissariat General au Tourisme (Belgian Tourist Board). Attractions awarded this distinction also benefit from a classification system of “Suns” (one to five).

The number of « suns » refers first and foremost to the quality of the experience provided to visitors, which includes criteria such as service quality, opening times, information about disabled access and foreign languages,...

To receive their first sun, attractions must publish a leaflet containing a description and practical information, and offer a clearly-identifiable reception area.

Three sun attractions must offer services such as electronic payment, and be able to welcome guests in two languages.

Five sun attractions must offer a shop and be able to welcome guests in three languages.

Tourist attractions committed to offering faultless quality are guaranteed to satisfy their visitors, who will undoubtedly become their leading ambassadors in turn!

Welcome to Wallonia, where our “Suns” always shine... All the better to serve you!

1940-1945 Wallonia & the Battle of the Bulge

May 1940: Germany violates the neutrality of Belgium and seizes Eben-Emael fort in the Province of Liège. King Leopold III announces the surrender of the kingdom, which falls into the hands of the Germans. After years of suffering and resistance, the liberation of Belgium begins in September 1944. In December 1944, Nazi Germany, driven into a corner, launches a desperate offensive in Wallonia: the Battle of the Bulge.

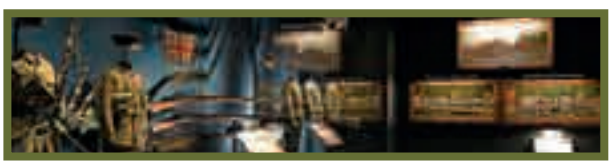

Word War II profoundly marked the history of Belgium and Wallonia. Today more than ever, museums and historical sites continue to remember this event thanks to precious testimonials and documents.

2019-2020 Commemorations

In 2019 and 2020, 75 years after the Battle of the Bulge and liberation of Belgium, numerous events commemorating the end of WWII will be taking place in Wallonia.

In Wallonia,
culture-lovers will not be disappointed!

Bearing witness happily to the many influences of the past as much as to current trends, it is packed with wonderful things to discover.

The Musée Hergé (creator of Tintin), the Musée de la Photographie and the Musée des Arts Contemporains (MAC's) are unmissable beacons of art. Le Mudia, a new museum at Redu, has also recently joined that list... Places like the Memorial 1815 at Waterloo or the Hôpital Notre-Dame à la Rose give a star billing to History. And history will be very much to the fore this year when a host of sites and museums prepare to commemorate the 75th anniversary of the Battle of the Ardennes (Battle of the Bulge), one of the last great battles of the Second World War to have left its mark on our land.

Walloon culture can be seen too in the heritage of its built environment. Witnesses to its rich industrial past, the mining sites of Blegny-Mine,Le Bois du Cazier, Bois du-Luc and Grand Hornu and the hydraulic boatlifts of the Canal du Centre have been awarded the status of UNESCO World Heritage Sites.

Discover the towns of Wallonia

To experience and discover Walloon culture in all its forms, visit our towns! Each has its own identity, but all have agreeable surprises in store for you that will make you want to press on ever further in your discovery of Wallonia. Towns celebrated for their art, their charm, their culture and history, each has its treasures, charms, curiosities and delicious specialities...

Seeking out the castles and châteaux

Here stand proud castles and châteaux, rising from the middle of the plains or looking out across their region from on high. Grand châteaux such as Beloeil, Modave, Seneffe, Jehay or Lavaux-Sainte-Anne, and mighty fortresses such as those of Bouillon, La Roche-en-Ardenne, Vêves or Reinhardstein. They have survived the centuries to tell their story and their secrets. Their different architectural styles will walk you through as many epochs of changing fashion. Some among them contain rich collections that illustrate the lives once lived within their walls.

Remembrance Tourism

Wallonia has been the scene of a number of important battles that have changed the history of Europe, even the world. This year we are commemorating the 75th anniversary of the Battle of the Ardennes (Battle of the Bulge), a tragic episode of the Second World War that is retold notably by the Bastogne War Museum, the Bastogne Barracks, the Baugnez 44 Historical Center, and also by the Musée de la Bataille des Ardennes at La Roche-en-Ardenne. The region was also likewise heavily affected by the First World War. Places like the Fort de Loncin or the Plugstreet 14-18 Experience keep alive the memory of these events. And it was in Wallonia that in 1815 Napoleon had his last battles before his defeat at the end of the Battle of Waterloo. You can follow this story at the Ligny 1815 Museum, at the Last Headquarters of Napoleon and also at the Memorial 1815.
